COTTON

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 4.—Favorable weather over the belt, the absence of news regarding the tropical storm and a year Liverpool market sent the price of cotton lower today. The closing today. In the first half hour of trading the active months lost 37 to 54 points.

As the decline progressed much liquidation was forced on the long side. Late in the morning the market was again quiet, but the decline was not arrested. Selling pressure was continued in the afternoon session, being encouraged by news of a tropical storm in the Gulf of Mexico. The market closed at 19 1/2 to 19 3/4 points lower than yesterday.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—All active cotton positions sold under 20 cents this morning and to new low levels. The present bear movement, reflecting heavy general selling on speculators, due to weak cables, a favorable weather map, and an absence of outside support. December contracts declined to 22 1/2 and March to 23 1/2, representing a net loss of 10 to 15 points from the opening of the season.

LIVERPOOL

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 4.—Cotton 400 in fair demand, prices lower; good middling, 12 1/2 to 12 3/4; middling, 12 1/4 to 12 1/2; good ordinary, 12 1/4 to 12 1/2; ordinary, 12 1/4 to 12 1/2.
